Ardmore, Thursday, November 11, 1915

Man measures the honesty of others by his own.

Progress that comes on cushioned tires often fails to awaken appreciation.

Chicago is wrestling with dry Sundays, while Ardmore never knew any other kind.

Ardmore has plenty of sobriety, although some of it may be of the compulsory kind.

Obtaining legislation by a called session is like licking honey from a nettle—we pay too much for it.

Some women boast of small feet, but they can put them down with just as much force as the owners of larger ones.

George Evans of the Chickasha Express, who is the only editor who has the courage to attempt to describe Oklahoma weather, should be induced to try his hand at a description of the flower gardens in Ardmore.

Business men of Denton and of Fort Worth met on a creek bank and enjoyed a big barbecue. They met for the purpose of devising plans to connect the two cities with a good automobile road, and the road will result.

Women writers continue to worry over the question why so many men decline to get married. If they would cut out the stylish church wedding and that old wedding march that has been worked overtime for many decades, they might see better results.

When Edward D. White retires, by resignation from the chief justiceship of the United States supreme court, there is a probability that former President Taft will be named by Woodrow Wilson to succeed him. It has been the lifelong ambition of Mr.
Taft to end his career on the bench.
His ability and his unimpeached integrity are appreciated in the south, and democrats of the country would approve so wise an appointment.

FOR THE PARTY.

The effort on the part of a few adherents of Governor Williams to make it appear that The Ardmoreite is endeavoring to assail the democratic party will be absolutely fruitless and of no avail.

There may be a few newcomers who think they might curry favor by so doing, but by republicans, socialists and real democrats such thinly veiled imputations will be laughed to scorn.

The democracy of The Ardmoreite during its nearly twenty years under its present ownership and management has always been a byword, and always will continue so. The fact of the matter is, the narrow margin of Governor Williams' election was not due to a falling off in the ranks of the party, but the failure to convince the electorate that he was sincere.
That the doubt was justified has already been fully and completely proven, and the only way to eliminate the chance for a repetition of the mistake is to be candid and fair, so that a better and fairer comprehension of what true democracy is, can be pressed home.

WHY THE PREACHER?

Will somebody please come along with a real, downright, good, legitimate reason why he, or she, for that matter, does not go to church?

The most flippant and common excuse is: "Because I don't like the preacher," and as a rule that one reason is supposed to be final, good enough and unanswerable in its logic.

Of course, if one only goes to be entertained or amused for a while, there is not much more to say, except that, whether he likes the preacher or not, his going or staying away amounts to but little to himself or anybody else, and the only hope attached to his going is that perhaps some day he will receive a jolt which will wake him up.

The advancement of civilization dates primarily with the institution of the church by that modest Carpenter of Nazareth who walked with sandaled feet along the shores of Galilee. Any contention to the contrary can be refuted by the mere fact that the boasted literature and architecture, the only landmarks of progressiveness prior to the Christian era, were for the gratification of avaricious ostentation which would today call forth condemnation far and wide if indulged in even to a minor degree.

Among the millions today who have never heard the message of the gospel, everything which goes to promote the welfare of the whole is conspicuous by its absence. Comforts, when measured by the least of those among civilization, are unknown, while education, advancement, refinement or anything that goes to make up the life worth living, is unknown. The survival of the fittest is the only code of ethics, and might makes right.

For centuries after the greatest tragedy the world has ever known took place on Golgotha, who shall say that, save for where the heaven was at work, the world which today we call Christian, was little better. It is to that heaven the world today owes all it has that makes for the comfort and prosperity of its civilized people, and to that heaven every man in any walk of life owes his position and the opportunity to better it. And this is what the church represents.

Ardmore today is honoring, and justly so, a great railroad corporation which, touched by the heaven which works through all things, saves the city from, if not ruin, at least an embarrassment which would retard its growth for years. How about the church which, after all, is nothing more or less than a mute appeal to mankind to recognize that which it presents and which as units, are nothing more than finger-posts in God's great plan of salvation.

Chicago had a "tight" Sunday, meaning that nobody got a drop to drink in any of the city's 7,152 saloons for the first time in many years.

"Neal of the Navy"

Into a Shark-
Infested
Sea!

Taken from the deck of a ship—flung over the shoulder of a herculean brute—a brute that was once a man—carried up to the dizzy height of the mast head, and then hurled out into the sickening space to land in a sea infested by man-eating sharks.

See the Brute—gigantic figure of superhuman strength—the thing that was once a man.

He is one of the characters that will command your attention from start to finish in "Neal of the Navy." William Hamilton Osborne, who has written some of the most popular stories of the day, is the author.

Pathe has brought his characters into life in motion pictures.

AMUSING INCIDENTS HAPPEN
IN MAKING SETTLEMENTS

In settling claims with people of the city for personal injury and property loss, the claim agents often run against a proposition that not only amuses them, but is so good that they have to let the general public in on the deal.
An instance in point. A few days ago a certain gentleman of African descent registered with the committee for personal injury and likewise property loss. He is a well known character about town and the clerks and the committee, including ex-Governor Cruise, soon convinced the negro that he was not only injured, but he was actually dead. The darkey could scarcely believe the latter statement and offered to give a personal demonstration that he was a live corpse. But he was given blanks, and told to fill them out in duplicate. Here is in substance what he returned:

"The flats of my house was twisted, was too near daid to tell how bad, the man can see for himself, I am not daid. X----- (his mark).

The agents looked over his property and he got about seven dollars. They likewise viewed his "personal injuries" and concluded they were worth about a dollar, which he accepted. Another put in a claim for property loss for $800.00, but when pinned down to brass tacks, accepted $20.80, which was some discount for cash. At that, many are of the opinion that he is winner by about twenty dollars.

A Wonderful Antiseptic

Germs and infection aggravate ailments and retard healing. Stop that infection at once. Kill the germs and get rid of the poisons. For this purpose a single application of Sloan's Linctament not only kills the pain but destroys the germs. This neutralizes infection and gives nature assistance by overcoming congestion and gives a chance for the free and normal flow of the blood. Sloan's Linctament is an emergency doctor and should be kept constantly on hand. 25c, 50c. The $1.00 size contains six times as much as the 25c.

UGH! CALOMEL IS HORRIBLE! IT SHOCKS YOUR LIVER, IF BILIOUS

CALOMEL SICKENS! DON'T LOSE A DAY'S WORK! CLEAN YOUR LIVER AND BOWELS WITH "DODSON'S LIVER TONE."

Ugh! Calomel makes you sick.
It's horrible! Take a dose of the dangerous drug tonight and tomorrow you may lose a day's work.

Calomel is mercury or quicksilver which causes necrosis of the bones.
Calomel, when it comes into contact with sour bile crashes into it, breaking it up. This is when you feel that awful nausea and cramping. If you are sluggish and "all knocked out," if your liver is torpid and bowels constipated or you have headache, dizziness, coated tongue, if your breath is bad or stomach sour, just try a spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tone tonight.

Here's my guarantee—Go to any drug store and get a 50 cent bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't straighten you right up and make you feel fine and vigorous I want you to go back to the store and get your money.

Dodson's Liver Tone is destroying the sale of calomel because it is real liver medicine; entirely vegetable, therefore it can not sicken or make you sick.

I guarantee that one spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tone will put your sluggish liver to work and clean your bowels of that sour bile and constipated waste which is clogging your bowels and making you feel miserable. I guarantee that a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone will keep your entire family feeling fine for months. Give it to your children. It is harmless; doesn't gripe and they like its pleasant taste.
